NYMAS FAQ

Who? The New York Military Affairs Symposium is an independent, not-for-profit educational organization. The membership includes scholars, active and retired military personnel and concerned civilians.

What? NYMAS talks are free and open to the public.

When? NYMAS talks are held from 7 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. on selected Friday evenings from September to June.

Some talks, including Fall or Spring Friday/Saturday events, may also be held. See email notifications or nymas.org online.

Where? Talks are held, except as noted, at the Soldiers', Sailors', Marines', Coast Guard and Airmen's Club, at 283 Lexington Avenue, between 36th and 37th Streets in midtown Manhattan.

Why? NYMAS is devoted to increasing public knowledge, awareness, and understanding of the interrelationship of war, society, and culture, through the presentation and dissemination of diverse scholarly viewpoints. We cover a broad range of topics, including current events, military history, arms control, international relations, defense policy, disarmament, civil-military relations, international security, and veterans' affairs.

NYMAS talks are free and open to the public
